

Training on Data Quality Improvement by using PDCA Methodology

30-Aug to 01-Sep 2022

The National Center for HIV/AIDS, Dermatology and STD (NCHADS) is running a training in Battambang province on Data Quality Improvement by using PDCA Methodology. This training is conducted by Data Management Unit of NCHADS with financial support by US-CDC and co-technical support by EpiC, FHI360, in the purposes of introduce the PDCA concept for improving data quality, provide capacity building on data analysis for CQI indicators and strengthen the uses of data for program improvement.

This training is participated by NCHADS team, Deputy Director of Provincial Health Department, representative from partners such as: US-CDC, EpiC-FHI360, and AHF as well as PASP manager and provincial data management officer from 25 provinces.

This event is starting from the informative remark from Dr. Kaeun Chetta, Vice-chief of Technical Bureau of NCHADS, the remark of representative from US-CDC and opening ceremony by Dr. Sou Sanith, Deputy Director of Battambang Provincial Health Department.

The training will be running in full 3 days including technical sessions and practices with the national facilitators from NCHADS, US-CDC and EpiC-FHI360.

