

Consultative Workshop for the Development and Implement of the National Strategy of HIV Drug Resistance

December 13-14, 2022 | NIPH, Phnom Penh

The National Center for HIV/AIDS, Dermatology and STD (NCHADS) with financial support from WHO and technical support from US-CDC, EpiC/FHI-360, and UHS, organized Consultative Workshop for the Development and Implement of the National Strategy of HIV Drug Resistance at NIPH, Phnom Penh that joined by Dr. Ouk Vichea, NCHADS's Director, Dr. Samreth Sovannarith Deputy Director of NCHADS, Dr. Ngauv Bora, Deputy Director of NCHADS, Dr. Deng Serongkea, WHO Representative and participant by representative ART staff from National Hospital, Provincial Hospital, and Referral Hospital and ART Clinic.

The purpose of this meeting is to consult and discuss the development and implementation of the national strategy for HIV Drug Resistance based on the latest WHO HIV DR Strategy 2021. There is the two days' workshop, On Day 1, we introduced the updated national guideline for management and ARV treatment including the HIV testing algorithm, Antiretroviral Therapy, the cause of treatment failure, regimen switching, and the HIV Drug resistance 2021 strategy. In the evening we introduced the Drafted Outline - National Action Plan for HIV DR then discuss on strategies and finalized.

On Day 2, we showed the study on ANRS 12276 2PICAM 2013 that conduct in 13 ART site on PR inhibitor-based second line regime since at least 6 months and ANRS 12374 3DICAM study with recommendations.

