

Training on New Data Quality Assurance SOP.

09-10 March 2023, Kampong Chhnang Province

The National Center for HIV/AIDS, Dermatology and STD (NCHADS) is conducting a training on Data Quality Assurance SOP in Kampong Chhnang province with financial support by GFAMT and technical support from EpiC, FHI360. This training is conducted for the purpose of introduction to new DQA SOP with the specific objectives: To provide guidance on procedure of DQA and provide clear roles and responsibilities of relevant staffs for improving the data quality.

This training will be running in 2 full days with the participation from provincial data management officer from 25 provinces which facilitate by the professional facilitators from NCHADS and EpiC.

This event was starting from the informative remark and opening announcement by Dr. Kaeun Chetra, Vice-chief of Technical Bureau of NCHADS and following by import session and discussion.

